

y at Oban High School

The force of the future? This group of Oban second year pupils showed an interest in joining Strathclyde Police. t07car08

This group of children will soon have to decide which subjects to take for their Standard Grades, and the careers day is organised to try and help them with their choices.

Oban High School organised the recent Careers Day in association with Careers Scotland.. t07car10