

er for Charities Day

Oban Sensory Garden had a stall packed with plants, all donated and appropriately scented, as well as a raffle and the stall was being manned by, among others, front left, Linda Flannigan and Caroline Silkowski and, back left, Liz Deverill, Shona Campbell, Marion Sharp and Mary Finch.

The 1st Oban Rainbows were dressed as Dalmatians for the parade.

Oban Angels Cheerleaders Andrea Smith, Briony Campbell-Smith and Kayleigh Tennant were collecting on behalf of the angels, who were raising funds to buy new pom-poms.
