

The Oban High School Wind Band before their performances of Instant Concert, Hootenanny and Recessional with the school's pipe band, t18prz08

Head Boy Paul Addison and Head Girl Ruth Cameron on the podium with some of the silverware behind them. t18prz06

The pipe band led the top table into the Corran Halls. t18prz07

Craig Hobbs with his certificate from the Royal Military Academy Sandhurst. Sixth year pupil Craig came through a rigorous selection process with both mental and physical challenges to be accepted for officer training once he completes his studies at university. There were 3,500 applicants for the places from all over the UK but the Oban pupil came through it with flying colours in a selection process which took around two months. t18prz05