

Life THROUGH

Colin Robb, William Ward, Daniel McGovern, Peter MacDougall, Gordon Duncan, 'Titch' MacIntyre, Frank Ellis, John Campbell and Alex Maxwell literally did a pub crawl around Oban. They visited 19 establishments raising £500 for charity.

Mrs Caroline Jamieson, who for 15 years organised canteens for outpatients in west Highland and county hospitals in Oban, received a surprise presentation at the Red Cross Centre on Monday when she was given a gift token in appreciation of her work from her colleagues on the committee of Lorn division of the Argyll Red Cross. The token was handed over by Ms Margaret Low, divisional president.
