

Life THROUGH

At an informal gathering held in the Palace Hotel, Oban, department of agriculture and fisheries Scotland colleagues said farewell to two members of the land staff promoted and transferred from Cameron House. Past and present members of land staff are pictured here with Douglas Sempill (centre, left) moving to Aberdeen as principal land officer and Eric Mills (centre, right) going to Stornoway as senior lands officer.

Members of Oban Angling Club at their annual prizegiving and dinner dance.