

Feis Latharna ends on a high note

Action from the feis concert at the Argyllshire Gathering. t39fes02

A CONCERT in Oban marked the end of a highly successful Feis Latharna.

More than 50 youngsters from all over Lorn took part in the feis which was held in Park Primary School.

The youngsters had the opportunity to take part in two workshops on the day. These workshops included a number of activities including Gaelic singing, drama, chanter, penny whistle, bodhran, guitar, step dancing, clarsach, fiddle and the accordion.

Organiser Sileas Sinclair said the feis normally took place over a week in Easter and felt the youngsters showed great enthusiasm during the day which was capped off by a concert at the Argyllshire Gathering Halls at night.

An Comunn Gaidhealach's Joy Dunlop tutored a Gaelic singing workshop attended by Abigail Evans, Caitlin Taylor, Isabella Swietlicki, Raonaid Crossan Hopkins, Roslyn MacGregor, Stephen Reed and Alanna Rowan. t39fes01