

THE LENS

1977

Children at St John's School were presented with a special cake baked at McTavish's and a doll's house by well-know food manufacturers Heinz after the 38 children at the school collected more than 1,000 Heinz food labels to help a national children's home appeal. The local label appeal was organised by Templeton's supermarket, George Street.