

A CEILIDH to raise money for Oban Pipe Band and Oban Gaelic Choir attracted a strong turnout of Lorn folk to the Argyllshire Gathering Halls, Oban.

With Fergie MacDonald's band providing its usual rip-roaring tunes there were many dances where the floor was filled.

Around £1,300 was raised on the night and organisers hoped to repeat the success next year.
