

Luing runs

Above: Caitlin Taylor of Taynult was the first girl over the line. t29mil04

Left: The youngest runner Musashi Miller is helped to the finish line by dad, Peter. t29mil02

THERE were few Sport Relief events in the Argyll area but Luing showed what can be done when a community pulls together for one cause.

Islanders and other Lorn folk of all ages gathered to run their mile for Sport Relief and, after everyone finished the race, enjoyed some well-deserved refreshments in the village hall.

On the day, a bucket of donations produced £190 which was added to the individual sponsor money collected by each runner.