

Life through the lens

Left Top: Oban WRVS members Nan Black; Helen Oatey; Elsie Kennedy; Shiela Wilson, district organiser, and Shiela McInyre at the Biggest Coffee Morning.

Middle: Oban Camanachd with the Kenneth MacMaster Cup as winners of the national under-14 shinty competition

Bottom: Campbell Cameron pressed the button to start the new SKIP terminal at the Co-op watched by Iain MacDonald, Dorothy McLennan, Neil Armour and George Slater.

Centre Top: Enjoying the Bounty Suppers and Single Twix are Robert Farrell (11), Neil Armour (11), Alan MacColl (12) and Justin Emsley (14) while their friends queue for their favourite chocolate bar and chips.

Middle: Budding accordianists with tutor Neil Sinclair at Oban Feis.

Bottom: Taynuilt Scouts brought home the National Flag after being crowned best troop in Scotland. Duncan Gillies, Stephen Offord, Nick Carruthers, Robert Gillies and Scott Offord are pictured with Scout leaders Martin Ward and Kenny Harris.

Right Top: Shiela Sinclair with a class of dancers at the Oban Feis.

Bottom: The Atlantis Leisure Fund benefited from £565 after a coffee morning organised by ladies, from left: Margaret Hamill, Aeneas Smith, Nan Smith, Elsie MacDougall and Louise Gilfillan. Pouring a cuppa is Atlantis Leisure's Mark Nicolson.